OBITUARY.

The Death of Henry W. Thomson.

In the death of Henry W. Thomson, which occurred at his home on Edwards street near Whitney avenue, where he had resided for years past, a very estimable and worthy elderly citizen has eassed away, a man of quiet life and tastes, of high integrity, of usefulness in the church and one who leaves a good example to his fellow men. Mr. Thomson's health had been impaired for months past. He was in active business life as a grocer in the business center of the city for many years. His store was for a long time on the east side of State street, a few doors north of Foote's fish market. Later he kept store across the street near where Galpin's stove store now is. Mr. Thomson was a prother of the late D. W. Thomson, who was prominent as a dealer in safes, and of the late Glies Thomson, who was for years identified with the same bus iness. He leaves one brother, Edward Thomson, a farmer residing in Cheshire The deceased leaves a wife and two daughters to mourn the loss of a beloved husband and father. Deacon Thomson was for years a prominent and active member of the Third church, and was connected with that church in the days of Rev. Dr. Cleaveland. Of ate years he had been a member of the United church. After retiring from the grecery business he served in various places as bookkeeper and in that position was for years with E. S. Kimberly & Co., the coal merchants. He leaves a good name and an honored memory. The deceased was a son of Eben Thomson, who died about thirty years on State street for many years.
